About Ara

Ara Institute of Canterbury is the largest provider of tertiary education in the South Island of New Zealand, with campuses in Christchurch, Timaru, Ashburton and Oamaru.

As an Ara student you will enjoy a strong sense of belonging within an inclusive and multicultural environment. You will never be just a face in a crowd. Your tutors and other staff will get to know you, and because our class sizes are small, you will get to know your classmates too.

During your studies, we will equip you with the skills employers want and give you work placement opportunities that prepare you for the realities of the job. With an extensive range of student services we will support you to succeed in your studies and help you make the most of your time in New Zealand.

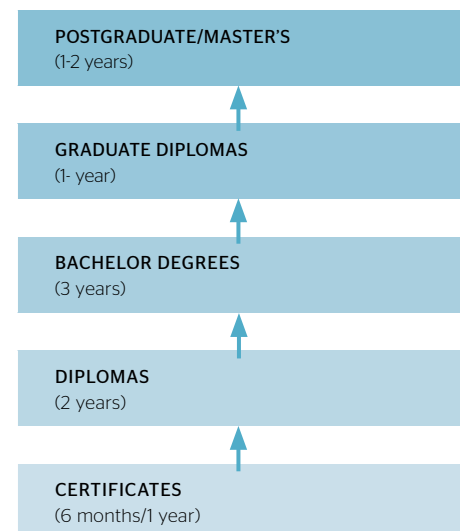

Why study with us?

A government-owned, NZQA category 1 institution, Ara has excellent facilities at campuses in Christchurch, Timaru, Ashburton and Oamaru. 19,000 students study with us each year. We offer:

- Internationally recognised degrees and postgraduate qualifications in a wide range of subjects.
- Tutors with years of real-world experience and industry contacts
- Small class sizes (you will get to know your tutors and they will get to know you)
- Skills employers want (you will be work-ready upon graduation)
- Work placement opportunities that prepare you for the realities of the job.

English for Further Study

New Zealand Certificate in English Language (NZCEL)

The New Zealand Certificate in English Language is an NZQA qualification. There are seven levels from beginner to advanced. These programmes can be used for further study, for work or for general English development. They aim to extend your ability in all areas of English communication (speaking, listening, reading and writing), prepare you for further English or mainstream study and extend your ability, confidence and comfort in a new country. The NZCEL is an 18-week course comprising two blocks of nine weeks with a two-week break in between. Classes are 20 hours per week.

NZCEL can be used to meet English language entry into our mainstream programmes. For further details, refer to the entry criteria of each programme and the equivalence table below. NZCEL studied at Ara is also accepted by the University of Canterbury and Lincoln University.

Textbooks

Some courses require students to buy a course textbook. If your course requires a course textbook, you will need to buy this at the start of your course (within the first week of the course).

- You can buy your textbook from Ara or purchase a second-hand version.
- If you buy the book online, make sure you get the correct edition. Check the ISBN number as shown.
- Photocopied books are not permitted under New Zealand copyright laws.
- If you cannot buy the book due to financial difficulties, contact Student Central to discuss options.

Language Self Access Centre

The Language Self Access Centre (LSAC) at both our Christchurch and Timaru campuses is where you can come to practise and improve your English. There is always a trained staff member available to help you select appropriate resources for your level and your needs. Resources available to you include:

- CDs, DVDs and CD-ROMs
- Multimedia computer programs
- Newspapers, TV nws and online news programmes
- Course books, worksheet/audio packs, readers and dictionaries
- New Zealand English materials and information about life in this country
- English for specific purposes (e.g. nursing, business, hospitality) and English for academic study
- Preparation material for IELTS, Cambridge, OET and Pearson examinations

As well as English resources, we also have a small selection of materials for students learning Spanish, Japanese and Māori.

Pathways to further study

The following diagram shows various pathways from English language to further academic studies available at Ara. You can start at any point according to your level and our staff will assist you along the way.
